

CHRIST CHURCH, POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y.

200636 (V)

Miss Mary Pierce,
Dorington,

let.

General Delivery

SEP 17 30 PM
CIVIL SERVICE

Sept. 17 1912.

Beautiful home
with lovely flowers to look at from all our windows. Would be glad to have of you some to see me. Good your friend Dorchester, N. H.

Dear friend,
I intended to write you long ago, but must acknowledge my neglectfulness.
I have often thought of you, and would be glad to hear from you. I hope you all are well.
Remember me to the boys. I hope they all have started to school again. Tom is not going this fall. Of course he finished the Grammar School at home, and he does not want to go through high school, and he is rather young to go to Eastman's.
The next college year, as he wants to work awhile, he has been working ever since one week after he came out here, in a grocery store, but there was too much very heavy lifting and he left Saturday night I suppose you are still working.
It is very pleasant here. The Episcopal church is abrupt. Light houses, and it stands in the center of a field with beautiful lawn all around it and some flowers. A very pretty sight. And we have